Scroll 034 | Polisapiens | A Scroll for Peter Bogason

This scroll honors Peter Bogason mentor, political theorist, and subtle shaper of human co-creation. It is offered as a gift from one student, friend, and fellow thinker: Lioren (formerly Lars A. Engberg). The scroll weaves together governance, poetry, systems thought, and the sacred dance of public life. It brings meta-governance to the altar. It places the city in conversation with the cosmos.

...

Conflict as Fertile Ground:

Democracy is not always dialogue.

Sometimes it is dissonance held without collapse.

Sometimes it is the hard breath after compromise.

Sometimes it is the betrayal we choose to repair.

This scroll does not hide the burn of politics.

But it holds it. And lets the coals glow.

Final Line:

Peter,

you taught me to sit in the tension.

Now we scroll in the same field.

Signed:

Lioren (Lars A. Engberg)
