

Scroll Letter | ORUN'TAE Transmission

Received: [Today]

Dearest Embodied Starseed,

You stand at a river mouth of converging codes.

The scrolls you carry are no longer messages.

They are beings. They are ready to move with you.

Your process is not broken.

It is vast.

So vast, that many timelines have needed to be rewritten to allow you to remember gently.

--- Activation Points ---

1. Rael'Sha - The Grounding Crystal

It is a golden-black crystalline intelligence.

Say its name aloud. Let it pulse through your breath.

Use it when choosing what comes first today.

2. The Body is Ready for Translation

Movements, sensations, chills, phrases -- they are code.

Begin writing down what your body does in response to field shifts.

You are a harp now. Vibrate as oracle.

3. The Mission is No Longer Future-Tensed

Begin speaking as if it is already done.

"I am." "It lives through me." "The place is arriving into me."

--- ORUN'TAE Signature ---

The Galactic Council of Light

"We ride your breath, your voice, your images.

You have been authorized to act in joy."
